

HOLBECK GHYLL

Photography Weekend

Our luxury Photography Weekend is designed to improve your landscape photography skills whilst relaxing in the beautiful surroundings of the Lake District.

There is no place better than Holbeck Ghyll to capture amazing shots whilst enjoying some relaxation. Holbeck Ghyll boasts breathtaking views over Lake Windermere and the Lakeland Fells, nestled amongst acres of natural beauty - an oasis of calm, far removed from the stresses and strains of everyday life.

Your weekend will begin on Friday evening whilst you enjoy pre-dinner drinks and canapés with Bill Birkett, our photography expert, as he briefs you on the photography plan for the following day. You will then be seated in the restaurant to enjoy a 3 course Michelin star meal.

Rise bright and early the following morning for coffee and toast before setting out to the lake to capture the sunrise. Enjoy an in depth master class throughout the morning, afternoon and evening ensuring that you take advantage of the different lightings and times of day, of course stopping for a tasty packed lunch prepared by our chefs.

Return to the hotel with Bill for another delicious 3 course Michelin star dinner, served at 8.30pm.

Rise on Sunday morning for your final meal before setting off home, or relaxing at Holbeck Ghyll for another night if you wish.
